About the International Institute for Democracy and Electoral Assistance (International IDEA):

The International Institute for Democracy and Electoral Assistance (International IDEA) is an intergovernmental organization that supports democracy around the world. The vision and mission of the organization is to advance democracy worldwide as a universal human aspiration and a factor in sustainable development by supporting the building, strengthening, and protection of democratic political institutions and processes at all levels.

On April 12, 2024, the Central Election Commission and the International Institute for Democracy and Electoral Assistance signed a Memorandum of Understanding strengthening cooperation and efforts to improve the electoral process in Ukraine and the democratic principles of organizing and conducting elections in Ukraine.

Cooperation between the CEC and International IDEA is aimed at:

- improving the knowledge and practical skills of the CEC members and its Secretariat on voting processes abroad;
- improving the knowledge and practical skills of the CEC members and its Secretariat in identifying and managing electoral risks, in particular, during the first post-war elections;
- implementing measures to improve the legal culture of voters;
- strengthening the partnership between the CEC and international institutions, including the EU.
